WATERS ARE RECEDING IN MOST OHIO CITIES AND TOWNS BUT FLOODS ARE SWEEPING TOWARD CINCINNATI AND OHIO RIVER

MARCHERS HUNT FOR VICTIMS IN DEBRIS OF THE WRECKED BUILDINGS IN MANY CITIES TODAY

COLUMBUS, O., March 22.—The flood waters are still receding rapidly in those towns which have been inundated. The loss of life in some places is considerably less than at first estimated, and in others the list is greatly increased.

The centers of the flood havoc today are at Zanesville, Cincinnati and Ohio river cities and towns, which are today being swept by the worst floods in many years. The rail cars, swamping, covered, will carry great destruction into the Mississippi river valley and on to the Gulf.

WATERS ARE RECEDING IN MOST OHIO CITIES AND TOWNS BUT FLOODS ARE SWEEPING TOWARD CINCINNATI AND OHIO RIVER

RESEARCHERS HUNT FOR VICTIMS IN DEBRIS OF THE WRECKED BUILDINGS IN MANY CITIES TODAY

COLUMBUS, O., March 28.—The flood waters are today receding rapidly in those towns which have been inundated. The loss of life in some places is considerably less than at first estimated, and in others the list is greatly increased.

The centers of the flood havoc today are at Zanesville, Cincinnati and Ohio river cities and towns, which are today being swept by the worst floods in many years. The waters, sweeping onward, will carry great destruction into the Mississippi river valley and on to the Gulf.

At Dayton today the waters have subsided to a few inches in the streets and searchers are hunting in the debris for victims of the awful disaster.

The best estimates place the dead in Dayton at 2,000 with property loss of $25,000,000.

At Cincinnati the river is expected to pass the highest high water mark on record and the damage will undoubtedly mount respectively into the millions.

At Zanesville the number of dead will reach over 800.

The loss in Columbus is found much greater than expected as the waters are receding. The best estimates now place the number of dead here at more than 600 between Central and Sandusky avenues, that portion of the city being wiped out. The bodies of 240 have been found in the United Brethren church on Avondale avenue. In addition to these 300 other victims have been counted along West Park avenue.

The militia has been ordered to shoot looters on sight.

E. L. GUNN RESIGNS POSITION

GIVES UP PLACE AS MANAGER OF ELECTRIC LIGHT PLANT

LOCAL HEAD OF DAYTONA PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY TO SEVER CONNECTION BY FIRST OF MAY.

E. L. Gunn, for six years manager of the business of the Schantz Electric, Ice & Water company in Daytona, and local manager for the Daytona Public Service company since the Schantz business interests were taken over by that company, has tendered his resignation to the Daytona Public Service company, effective May 1.

The announcement of the resignation of Mr. Gunn comes as a distinct surprise to the people of Daytona, where he has made many friends among the business men and citizens during his time as manager of the electric light, ice and gas business. Mr. Gunn has been actively in charge of the work of installing the new gas plant here and has recently seen the completion of the new electric light and ice plant, which he designed at New Smyrna. He has not announced his plans for the future, but says he expects to remain in Daytona.

Prize Steers Not Good Meat.
The meat of more than one prize steer has proved disappointing in the eating, though fine to look at. In the development of the animal for competition his flesh is sometimes, if not always, seamed with small veins of fat which are dilated by cooking into tough strings. Hence, the range-fed steer, not nursed into prominence, affords the better steak or roast.

Pleasing Epigram.
"Great talents are of no use without a little sunshine of the mind"—thus wrote Lady Shelley of her friend Lord Brougham, who suffered from chronic disgust of life.—London Times.

More Than That in Life.
It would be a bad day for humanity if a man's debt to his fellow-men should come to be calculated and paid solely in rates and taxes.

Early at the Ivories.
James E. Zitek, three months old, has four teeth and is expected to be able to play the piano when two years old.—Chicago Evening Post.

Hunt for Relatives.
One of the most unique methods of getting a lonely traveler into the hands of her friends was that employed by an agent of the Traveler's Aid society, who found a young woman at one of the railway stations and accompanied her to an address in the Italian quarter of Brooklyn, where she was to join a relative. The relative could not be found, and finally the two women walked slowly along the street, shouting the name of the family which was wanted. The cries at last reached the proper ears, and the wanderer was welcomed.—Christian Herald.

Young Offender.
A woman left her baby in its carriage at the door of a department store. A policeman found it there, apparently abandoned. As he passed down the street, a gamin asked: "What's the kid done?"—Culler's.

Concerning Woman.
When God thought of mother, he must have laughed with satisfaction and framed it quickly—so rich, so deep, so divine, so full of soul, power and beauty was the conception.—Henry Ward Beecher.

REMEMBER THE LOVED ONES
 Pathetic Religious Ceremony That Is Observed by People of the Isle of Ushant.
 In the Island of Ushant—the "Isle of Fear"—there exists a custom probably unknown in any other part of Christendom. When a native dies abroad or is lost at sea, his relatives have a small wax cross made, some seven inches long. This is solemnly taken to the church and presented to the priest, who deposits it in a box, shaped like a cinerary urn, that hangs on the south side of the altar of St. Joseph. This is called the "Pro Elia" cross, and is supposed to stand for the spirit of the dead. These memorial symbols are allowed to accumulate in the box till the next church mission comes round. As these revival services are held only once in every four or five years, the number of crosses may be very considerable. A day is then set apart for their solemn interment. It is the great day, the climax of the mission. The church is draped in black and crowded with a mourning congregation, many of whom break out into loud wailing. The crosses are brought from their urn in solemn procession, a requiem mass is said over them, and then they are carried to the churchyard, the iron door of the tomb is unlocked, and they are interred with full honors. Throughout the year hardly a day passes but some pious soul comes to sprinkle the tomb with holy water and say a prayer before it for the dead.—Wide World Magazine.

Shot by a Rabbit.
 Cyril Newman, a schoolboy hunter, is dying in a Hackettstown (N. J.) hospital from shotgun wounds received while rabbit shooting. He had placed his gun on the ground while he opened a trap containing a rabbit. He intended to shoot the captive as it ran away, but the rabbit gave a jump and landed on the trigger of the gun, discharging both barrels.

Quick Decision.
 "Hub!" snarled the railroad editor. "Here's a story that in one place calls a man Bridge and in another place refers to him as Bridge. What do you think of that?" "Merely a question of you or I," remarked the statehouse man, flippantly. And the railroad editor, who was inclined to egotism, decided in favor of "Bridge."

Still Believes in Witches.
 There is a certain walnut tree near Benevento, in Italy, around which the witches are said to gather on certain nights; and many a peasant of the Campagna believes that the witches assemble on midsummer nights amid the ruins of the Roman Forum, where they turn themselves into huge black cats. As one proceeds past the superstitions of the ignorant thicken and multiply. India is full of supernatural traditions and fantasies.

Destiny of America.
 A nation is not a conglomeration of voters, to be represented by hungry politicians empowered to partition the spoils of office, but a people animated by a common impulse and seeking to work out a common destiny. HOFFMAN TO BE TRIED NEXT MONTH

REGULAR TERM OF CIRCUIT COURT TO CONVENE APRIL 9

CRIMINAL COURT ALSO CALLED TO MEET SAME DATE, BUT WILL LIKELY BE POSTPONED
TWO WEEKS.

The regular spring term of the circuit court for Volusia county will begin at DeLand Tuesday, April 8, and the greatest interest centers in the case of Rev. Henry Hoffman, the preacher charged with abuse of orphans under his charge at the Enterprise orphanage. Hoffman was arrested in Kentucky and brought back to Volusia county for trial. He has been confined in the Volusia county jail for several months. At first he requested that the preliminary hearing be postponed until he could obtain an attorney to defend him and State's Attorney John C. Jones of Orlando was in DeLand for a week waiting for Hoffman to obtain the services of a lawyer. It is said that Murray Sams has been engaged to defend the preacher and that the preliminary will be held as soon as the state attorney can arrange to attend, or Hoffman may be taken before the grand jury without a preliminary.

Another case which will come up for trial at this term of the circuit court is that of A. B. Reddick, a Daytona negro, charged with shooting a negro woman. Reddick was indicted by the last grand jury and his case is now ready for trial.

The case of John Hagans, a New Smyrna negro, charged with the murder of Deland Nix, another black, December 27 last, will go before the grand jury.

Jurors for the term were summoned this week and the names of those summoned, from among whom the grand and petit jurors will be selected, are as follows:
A. C. Haynes, Axel Erickson, Joseph Padgett, J. J. Trissell, James Kincaid, J. C. Bennett, C. A. Gontz, E. C. Totman, H. W. Purcell, Thomas Metz, W. W. Jordan, G. W. McDonald, C. C. Cooper, H. W. Mann, T. F. Wingate, T. L. Howell, H. C. Clifton, J. R. Dyal, Jr., H. C. Andrews, R. C. Bushnell, R. E. Lyle, R. P. Cook, Wm. Wetherell, J. B. Case, L. H. Furen, Dave Jackson, W. C. Watts, E. M. Rich, D. F. Morrison, Wm. Beest, J. P. Dixon, C. J. Scott, W. O. Brearo, S. E. Melton, M. L. Crews, C. R. McKenzie.

The regular term of the Volusia county criminal court is called to convene in DeLand April 8, but it is probable the term will be postponed for two weeks, so as not to interfere with the session of the circuit court.

*The final issue of the Daily News for the season 1912-13 will appear Saturday evening. The weekly Gazette-News will keep you posted on the happenings hereabouts during the summer. Send in your subscription now. Eight months for $1.25; or $1.50 per year.

RESIDENT DIES AT HOME ON WEST VOLUSIA AVENUE.

W. C. Mayberry died at his home on West Volusia avenue Thursday afternoon, aged 73 years. Funeral services were held at the residence this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. A. L. Abercrombie, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiating, and the interment was made in Greenwood cemetery, west of this city. The deceased is survived by his wife and six children, four sons and two daughters, all of this city, who will have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their bereavement.

Widely Separated Cities.
"Now, children, who can name two cities which are widely separated?"
"Boston and San Francisco."
"Correct! Any one else?"
"London and Melbourne."
"Yes. Now two more cities widely separated."
"Simpli-city and Dupli-city."—Bos-transcript

THE CRESCENT BENEFIT FOR ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The benefit entertainment at the Crescent theater, Thursday evening, for the Daytona High School association resulted in a very gratifying addition to the finances of the association. The following high school girls acted as ushers: Misses Reva Livingston, Ethel Sholtz, Linna Stubenbord, Inez Maley, Irene Esch and Kate Dittmann. Miss Winona Lapp had been selected as ticket seller, but in her absence Miss Ora C. Lively, assistant principal of the high school, presided at the ticket window. A good chorus from the high school entertained the patrons of the show with a selection and an encore. The pictures for the evening were very interesting. Those taking part in the chorus included the Misses Iva Livingston, Grace Otis, Thelma French, Anna Belle McClellan, Margaret Brokaw, Julia Michael, Lucy Stilling, Elizabeth Uhlne, Irene Esch and Kate Dittmann, with Miss Florence Gittens as pianist.

LAST PLAY OF SEASON

DREW LARGE AUDIENCE.

"Freckles," Neil Twomey's dramatization of the novel of that name by Gene Stratton Porter, attracted a large audience to the New Daytona theater Thursday evening and according to the announcement of Manager Snead will probably be the last entertainment offered at the theater this season. The play was well produced, the company being a very well balanced one. Arthur DeLord, in addition to cleverly depicting the character of Freckles, possesses a rich baritone voice and his singing was greatly enjoyed. Hazel Harroun was good in the part of the Angel and Royal Thayer was excellent as the Scotchman, Duncan. In fact all the parts were well taken, and the play a very interesting one. Manager Snead has spared no effort or expense this season to give the public the best plays obtainable and deserves credit for the high class of those produced. He feels very much encouraged by the appreciation shown his efforts this season.

Willie's Blunder.
"How old are you?" asked the little boy of the lady who was calling on his mother. "Why, Willie!" exclaimed his mother. "You must not ask a lady a question like that. It's not polite." "Why, mamma? She isn't supposed to tell the truth."

INTERESTING RIDES AND DRIVES POINTS WORTH VISITING

OCEAN BEACH—excellent motoring north for 10 miles and south 15 miles to Mosquito Inlet and the Government Lighthouse at Ponce Park. The beach is the most magnificent in the world.

BEED, KNOX & BEED ORANGE GROVE—18 miles, via Ormond, is one of the largest groves in Volusia county and is well worth seeing; can be reached by motor over fairly good road; can also be reached by boat.

NUMBER NINE ORANGE GROVE—a large grove, passed on the way to the Beed, Knox & Beed grove, is 12 miles from Daytona.

NEW SMYRNA—16 miles from Daytona, over an excellent hard surface road; this drive is said to be the prettiest in the state. At New Smyrna are the ruins of an ancient fort and other historical spots, left by the colony of Andrew Turnbull.

OLD SPANISH MISSION—2 miles west of New Smyrna, reached by motor over good road. This mission is without authentic history but by many it is contended that this is the church built by Columbus on his second voyage to America. The altar is still extant, but at a later date the building was used as a sugar mill.

SPANISH SUGAR MILL—2 miles west of Port Orange and about 8 miles from Daytona; the machinery is still in a good state of preservation, although the mill is presumed to have been built and operated by the early Spanish settlers.

DELAND—25 miles from Daytona; the county seat of Volusia county and seat of John B. Stetson university; a very picturesque city; reached by motor over hard surfaced road.

GOVERNMENT LIGHTHOUSE—a Ponce Park, 12 miles from Daytona is reached by boat or by motor on the ocean beach.

MAINTH TREN—Daytona; an aboriginal Indian village; reached by motor over hard surfaced road.

MOSENA RIVER—The Mosena river, reached by motor over hard surfaced road, and runs to the northeast, the stream, 25 miles long. Generally a small stream, but in some places it may be seen in its true nature. This is a tourist should visit.

DELTON SPRINGS, 23 miles from Daytona; several groves of water a minute; a bathing pool, and a beautiful scenery. Spring is situated in old plantation. Reached by motor over good road; a nice picnic party.

OAK HILL—hamlet, 10 miles from Daytona; several groves in the locality; reached by motor over hard surfaced road.

ORMOND—six miles from Daytona; here is located the Ormond hotel and a pretty town; nearby are the ruins of Spanish sugar mills.

TURTLE MOUND—25 miles south of Daytona; reached by boat; a mammoth mound of oyster shells supposed to have been left by a prehistoric race of people. Pottery and other antiquities have been discovered in excavating the shell.

PORT ORANGE—an attractive town, 6 miles south of Daytona, can be reached by motor over hard surfaced road; or the trip can be made by the road and crossing the Halifax river on the Port Orange bridge, the run can be made on the ocean beach.

CLARENDON GOLF LINKS—2 miles from Daytona and immediately north of the Hotel Clarendon at Seabreeze; the links are now in good condition. The Hotel Clarendon bears the distinction of being the only fireproof winter tourist hotel in the world.

GENERALLY, you may motor in any direction from Daytona and find places and objects of interest which your driver can explain to you; there are many by-roads through the sylvan vegetation that a visitor will greatly enjoy.

E. D. Hobart, who purchased the Stillman property on Seabreeze avenue some months ago, is having numerous improvements made in the house, including an east porch, new kitchen and bath room. R. K. Crawford has the work in charge.

Mrs. Minnie F. Barnes made the boat trip to St. Augustine and will go on to Jacksonville with Mrs. Adie Lord, who left Tuesday morning enroute to her home at Grand Lodge, Mich., after several months visit with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sheets at their winter home on Halifax avenue. Mrs. Barnes expects to return home Saturday.

C. A. Phillips sold a lot last week on Earl street, Seabreeze, adjoining the Garfield cottage, to George Martin, who is having it cleared and graded to erect a bungalow winter home. Mr. Martin has recently disposed of his apartment house on North Atlantic avenue, not caring to have the responsibility of roomers, as he and Mrs. Martin come south for a restful winter.

Emmer services at the Methodist church were well attended. The program given by the Sunday school was appreciated by a congregation which taxed the capacity of the church. The music was especially well rendered under the leadership of Professor Watkins, who has drilled the pupils.

From the lecture course which closed last week, $115 was realized and $200 from the excursions given under the auspices of the Tourist class. The church is now out of debt.

Mrs. E. K. Smith, house guest of Mrs. M. F. Barnes left last week on her return to Cincinnati, O., after a pleasant visit.

Miss Bell Parker, of Montclair, N. J., who has been at Orange City the past winter, came in Tuesday and is guest of Miss Mertie Freeman at Pinehurst. Miss Mertie visited Miss Parker last summer.

The White House had an oyster bake last Saturday evening which was greatly enjoyed by the guests. Music by the pupils of the Industrial school was an enjoyable feature. The White House is still turning away guests and will remain open through April.

Dr. and Mrs. James, guests at Pinehurst, have their niece, Miss Mills, and are looking for Miss Mills' father and mother, who made the trip to Panama. They are located in one of the Beardsley cottages.

Miss Mattie Bishop of DeLand is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bishop at their home on Earl street.

W. V. Paschall, manager of the casino moving picture show, gave a benefit to the public library of 50 per cent of the proceeds from Monday evening's movies.

Some 20 or 25 couples enjoyed a dance at the casino Monday evening, given by Fred Ames, winter visitor. Prince George orchestra furnished the music.

W. W. Marshall and wife and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Gaskell were in Orlando and Winter Park this week, making the trip overland.

Mr. Marshall said it had been about 15 years since he was in Winter Park and he wanted to see the developments.

Mr. Marshall has been pushing the improvements on his addition all winter, and the work is still going forward. Sidewalks have been laid along Goodall and Vermont avenues, and setting palmetto trees is still in progress. He has let the contract to Leonard brothers to grade all lots on Goodall and Vermont avenues from Peninsula drive to the Atlantic ocean. On the quiet a number of lots are being sold now. C. M. Lewis and C. Z. Pickering of Thompson, Pa., purchased a building lot on the south side of Vermont avenue, near Peninsula drive. The completion of the new bridge and the street car line will give impetus to the sale of property in this subdivision.

Mr. and Mrs. Cramer and Mr. and Mrs. Holmes were among the departing visitors last week. They were located at Villa Vista on Grandview avenue.

Miss Mildred Bullock of Jacksonville, Texas, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. C. W. Smith, on Atlantic avenue.

S. H. Gove is making plans for three handsome bungalow homes to be erected on Halifax avenue, south of W. R. Phillips' apartment house, for Messrs. Robt. S. Holmes, Smith Young and Treglawn. This property, fronting 200 feet on Halifax avenue, running 300 feet to the river, is very desirable as a building site, and it is understood that the winter homes to be erected by the parties will be quite an addition to the street and town.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hodges and children, who have been in Mrs. Horn's cottage on Seabreeze avenue, left Tuesday on their return to Algonac, Mich.

Mrs. Geo. P. Johnson entertained the guests of her house and cottage at a theater party at the Lyric Friday afternoon.

Mrs. V. H. Abbott, daughter and son, Miss Tillie and Ralph, are occupying the Hubbell cottage on Atlantic avenue.

A. S. Harroun was quite ill Tuesday from a nervous attack.

Mrs. E. A. Branch made a brief business trip to Jacksonville, going up Saturday and returning Monday afternoon. She was with her son, Elmer Yelvington and family while in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Miller, who were in the Carter house on Coates street, left Wednesday for Winchester, O.

Mrs. M. C. Brooks will spend the summer in Albany, N. Y., where she will visit relatives of her husband. She leaves next Tuesday and expects to be away until September. Mrs. Brooks will be greatly missed in the Sunday school and church of the Baptist Mission, and also by a large class of music pupils.

C. F. Brooks and family, who have been occupying the Hawkeye Villa, left this week by car for Jacksonville, enroute to their home in Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Stout and family, who were in one of the Darbey cottages, left Tuesday morning on their return to Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Jones of Ocala have taken the Comfort Lodge for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Mcmanus and friend, Mrs. Peck, and daughter, left Tuesday for their home at Honor, Mich. They were located in the Horn home.

Mrs. H. J. Putnam of Concord, N. H., who has been spending part of the winter with her mother, Mrs. Sherman, on Hollywood avenue, returned home this week.

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hibbard assisted by Miss Emma Butler, gave a very enjoyable social in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Walker and their daughters, Alvira, Eva and Della, who leave for their home in Indiana shortly. The evening was very pleasantly passed in social chat, stories of travel and music. Miss Nellie Vande Vord rendered several piano solos. Mrs. Hibbard and Miss Della Walker delighted the guests with a duet. Mrs. Lucy Whiting of Peking, China, and her sister, Miss Nellie Jackson, sang Chinese hymns. The parlor was beautifully decorated with flowers and Spanish moss. Delicious refreshments were served. Twenty-nine guests participated in this happy event and after all joining in singing "Auld Lang Syne," they shook hands with the Walkers, wishing them a safe and pleasant journey home. Then thanking their kind host and hostess for the pleasant time they departed.

Mrs. Isadorrah Jackson of Ohio, and Mrs. Charles Backus of Illinois, last Saturday evening gave a marshmallow roast on the moonlit beach in honor of the Misses Alvira, Eva and Della Walker. After toasting and eating all they could of the sweets they sat in the sand and told wild, weird ghost stories until they scared themselves so badly they had to return home. All thanked the hostesses and wished they would "scare us again."

Senator Backus and wife chaperoned a moonlight bathing party Monday evening in honor of the Misses Alvira, Eva and Della Walker, who return north soon. The party drew their mantles around them and sat in the dark by a sand dune until fair Luna lifted her bright face above the horizon, then, "lo, presto change," the mantles were off and the group were splashing in the surf. It was a beautiful night and all enjoyed it very much.

CAMERA HERO SAVED TRAIN
Spilled Films an Ill Reward for Act That Deserved Better Things of Fortune.

The slave of the camera was dozing in the smoking car when a half dozen shots rang out in the night air. The train slackened. There were more shots.

"Train robbers!" shrieked a pallid passenger as he crawled under the seat.

The camera man grasped his black box and tripod, and, running to the car platform, sprang off into the darkness.

The robbers, most of them, were grouped about the express car. There was much money in the express safe. The company said not over $17, but it must have been thousands. Anyway, the robbers were determined to get it, whatever it was. They had done a lot of wild shooting and several persons had been hurt. Now they had shoved a stick of dynamite into the car and were just about to ignite the fuse.

Suddenly a blinding glare filled the air with dazzling fire.

With a wild shriek the robbers fled to the woods.

The flashlight of the camera man had saved the train.

When they found him he was crouched before a train hand's lantern, weeping bitterly.

"Something went wrong with the dum thing," he moaned. "The film's spoiled!"

GIVE REALITY TO THE CHILD
Writers of the Nineteenth Century Responsible for Valuable Addition to Literature.

Children were only found yesterday. Before the nineteenth century the child mind and the child heart were not supposed to have enough in them to interest the majestic adult. It is true that you find a delightful baby in Homer; that in Vergil there is the prettiest glimpse of a little girl, and up and down in the classics you may meet half a dozen other pleasant shadows of children. But they are only shadows, only at the most charming pictures. They give you as much as if they were painting or sculpture—for in children's bodies art has always had interest enough—only what a child looks like, the pretty weakness, the instinct for play, the native gesture and movement. Not till the "return to nature," not till the spirit of romance moved on the waters at the end of the eighteenth century, do you find poets beginning to tell of the thought and faith in a child's mind, the mysteries of the child's heart, the fancies that are dreams and the fancies that are visions. You may think that they have gone too far, that they read into childhood the laborious philosophizing and sometimes the labored sentimentality of the adult. But no one who loves children will deny that the best of the children in nineteenth century books have a far richer reality, a far fuller life than any that were born in earlier words. And some of the best are in Dickens.

Time and Place.
A little six-year-old Philadelphia girl was sent to the family physician for a vaccination certificate, so that she could enter school. The certificate required the date of vaccination. Not remembering when he had done it, he said, "Janet, how long are you vaccinated?" To which Janet innocently replied, "Here it is on my leg, about an inch long."

OF EXECUTIVE.

Taking the stand that "discretion is the better part of valor," Mayor Henry Titus this morning ordered killed a pet fox terrier dog belonging to a woman tourist by the name of Mrs. Laura H. Smith, and the order was carried out by City Marshal Tom Milton, despite the vehement protests of the owner of the dog.

The action was taken by the mayor on advice received from the city clerk of Miami, saying the dog was one which had been bitten by a rabid dog in the city down the coast.

Mrs. Smith protested strongly that the dog had not been bitten by the rabid dog in Miami, her protests causing considerable commotion in the vicinity of the city hall, after the dog had been captured and placed in confinement at the fire station.
Chloroform was used by the marshal in putting the dog to death.

The letter received by Mayor Titus from the Miami city clerk was as follows:

"Some time ago a dog was brought here from Montgomery, Ala. The dog was bitten there by a mad dog and after getting here, in a few days went mad. This dog bit several dogs here, while mad, and several persons. We sent the head to the Pasteur institute in Atlanta, where it was analyzed and pronounced mad.
We have been able to get hold of every dog that was bitten, except one spotted terrier, which belonged to a woman by the name of Smith.
This woman left here the next day for your city, so eluded us. I am enclosing a picture of the woman and the dog and telling you the facts, so that you may locate the dog and have him put where he can do no damage.

"In Miami we are taking every precaution. We do not permit any dog on the streets unless muzzled and are killing them by the wholesale. All those bitten by the mad dog have been killed or shut up and are taking the Pasteur treatment.

"The mayor has instructed me to write you this letter.

"Yours respectfully,
"W. B. MOORE.
"City clerk."

Blunders of Royal Authors Royal authors sometimes make deal of editing. A London Chronicle, Frederick the Great, whose style and punctuation astonished Carlyle, says the London Chronicle: "A story for 'a cettie heure' was a specimen of the former, 'and as the punctuation he never could understand the meaning of it; he merely scattered a few commas and dashes as if they were shaken out of a pepper box upon the page and so leaves it."
How, asks Carlyle, can such slovenliness be explained in a king who "would have ordered arrest for the smallest speck of mud on a man's buff belt, indignant that any pipe clayed portion of a man should not be perfectly pipe clayed?" He can only conclude that Frederick really cared little about literature after all. Also "he never minded snuff upon his own chin, not even upon his waistcoat and breeches." "I am a king and above grammar," said another monarch.

Routes Traversed by Christ.

One of the caravan tours of Assyria and India lay near the little city of Nazareth, where in his boyhood our Savior undoubtedly saw and conversed with men of many nations and varied religious and philosophical beliefs.

Indeed, some years a French traveler in Thibet reported, that, having broken a leg, he was hospitably nursed and cared for in a lamasery or Thibetan convent, and allowed access to its library, in which he found an ancient volume, which stated that before our Savior began his mission, he joined a caravan, and visited Persia and India, debating with the Magi and the priests of Buddha the tenets of their beliefs, and seeking to turn them to the worship of Jehovah. It is by no means improbable that a portion of his thirty years of obscurity was spent in such wanderings along the great highways of the world's commerce.—National Magazine.
